Hi [REDACTED], I hope you had a safe holiday weekend.

I'm writing to let you know, there is some small animal that's made a home in the roof. I can hear it every morning and evening. It's probably not a good idea to have it there as it could cause more damage or other issues to the home. I do not know how the rodent got up there as [REDACTED] and I keep things tidy. If you decide to call someone to check out let me know. Thank you
Haroon

We are going to identify the entry point as soon as possible and locate the contractors to fix any missing woodwork or soffit. I'll let you know the timing.

Hi [REDACTED], hope this message finds you well

I've come across another issue, perhaps related to the rodent. The electric outlets in the master bath stopped working a couple days ago. I thought maybe the circuit got tripped somehow, so I asked [REDACTED] (XXXXXXXXXX) to check the breaker box but according to [REDACTED] everything looked fine. Oddly enough the bathroom lighting is working. Let me know your thoughts and when you plan to have someone check it out so I can be available. Thank you! Haroon

Hi [REDACTED], happy new year. Wishing you a safe and prosperous year ahead.

Following up on our fun rodent issue. I think because the weather has turned cold, multiple squirrels/rodents are now setting up shop. If more come through will the ceiling hold the weight, and what else could happen. I would really appreciate a plan to look into this. I am also alerting you to prevent long term/costly repairs. I work from home so my schedule is flexible. Let me know thank you! Haroon

Hi [REDACTED], not trying to be a pain on this but I can regularly hear birds and squirrels coming in and out of the house.

If it's easier, I can call someone to come down and have them take a look, and have them send you the bill.

I'm trying to be respectful of the property, so please help me to help you. Thanks, Haroon

Hi [REDACTED], thanks for taking care of the issue. Really appreciate it. It's been a few days and haven't heard our friend up there anymore so hopefully that's the end of it. Regards, Haroon
